

Bimodal correlated-failure structure: convergence is concentrated at the extremes ($k=0$ and $k=\max$), with intermediate k depleted — replicated across both datasets.

